Evaluations & Assessments

Prior to making a determination of an individual's suitability for a therapeutic program the Courts may order an expert evaluation and assessment.

Joni C. Stewart, LCSW & Associates, is qualified to provide personal evaluations and assessments.

The importance of evaluations and assessments is that they provide a written synopsis of the individual's actions, recommendation(s) and an individual treatment plan.

Evaluations and assessments are provided in the best interest of the individual, victims, families and society.
